ABSTRACT

The data used in this report to present three statistical pictures of Illinois public libraries during the fiscal year 1987-1988 comes primarily from the 1987-88 Illinois public library annual report forms. Section One presents the individual view of public library operations in which facts about use, resources, and finances are provided. Tables are used to present these facts. In Section Two libraries are grouped by size of population served, and statistical averages and percentiles for libraries serving populations of different sizes are presented. Tables showing selected aspects of library operations are listed for individual libraries in each population group in this section. In Section Three libraries are grouped by system, and data are reported in statistical averages and percentiles for library systems. Selected aspects of operations are listed for individual libraries and charts that compare the individual systems are found in this section. Three types of facts about library operations are also presented in this report: (1) basic statistics, e.g., the total circulation or number of books held; (2) ratios, e.g., the number of circulation transactions per capita; and (3) percentages, e.g., the percentage of its total operating budget that a library spends on books. Illinois Public Library Annual Report Form for 1987-1988 187

PREFACE

Illinois Public Library Statistics: A Guide for Librarians and Trustees, is a composite of the previous Illinois Public Library Statistics: Analyses and the statistics listings that appeared annually in Illinois Libraries. It pulls together in one place the statistical picture of public libraries in Illinois during the fiscal year of 1987-88. This publication can be used in conjunction with the management profile that is prepared for individual public libraries in Illinois.

Data elements have been summarized for each of eight population groups and for each library system. Ratios and percentages based on those data elements have been calculated and are presented in tables for each library, population group, and library system.

In an effort to make the publication more useful, we have included additional text that provides more detail on how a library or library system can make use of these statistics. We hope to make improvements in the explanatory text and in the presentation of the statistics each year to increase the usefulness of this issue to librarians and trustees. We welcome your comments and suggestions for changes.

Many Library Research Center staff have worked on the compilation of this issue. We wish to acknowledge the efforts of Beth Kawski and Carol DeVoss who edited and coded the IPLARs and resolved related problems; Brent Ververs, Kris Olsen, Lian Ruan, Pam Conlin, Eileen Hallowed, Julie Radway, Joe Lihota, Frank Ratkus, and Kim Hale who entered the data into the computer file; Craig Murphy who wrote the computer programs; Jana Bradley, Debra Johnson and Pat Boze who edited the report; and Katy Sherlock who coordinated the project.

The Library Research Center staff would also like to thank Kathleen Bloomberg and Stanley Adams of the Illinois State Library who provided advice and assistance throughout the project.

INTRODUCTION

Libraries can be understood in many ways--by working in them, by visiting them, and by reading verbal and numerical descriptions of them. Numerical, or statistical, descriptions condense factual information about many aspects of library operations and present the information in a variety of ways, each providing a different view of the total library picture.

This publication, Illinois Public Library Statistics: A Guide for Librarians and Trustees, presents statistical pictures of Illinois Public Libraries during the fiscal year 1987-1988. The information comes primarily from the 1987-88 Illinois Public Library Annual Report forms.

Statistics should be seen by librarians and trustees as tools and not ends in themselves. The value of the statistics published here is that they can be used both internally and externally by the library's administration. Internally, the library's individual statistics can be compared to previous years' statistics as a way to track performance, to assess the success of the library's chosen goals, to set new service and management objectives, or to keep the library headed in its chosen direction. Externally, the library's statistics can be compared to other libraries of similar size and environment to determine whether the library is above or below the average for its system or population group, to justify library actions and budgets, to plan for library service, and to evaluate the library's progress. Throughout this publication, suggestions and explanations are provided for using this statistical information.

STATISTICAL VIEWS OF ILLINOIS PUBLIC LIBRARIES

Three statistical pictures of Illinois public libraries are presented in this publication:

I. THE INDIVIDUAL VIEW: This section presents facts about library operation for each public library in Illinois including use, resources, and finances. Tables used to present these facts are found in Section 1.

II. LIBRARIES GROUPED BY SIZE OF POPULATION SERVED: This section describes statistical averages and percentiles for libraries serving populations of different sizes. Tables showing selected aspects of library operation are listed for individual libraries in each population group in Section 2.

III. LIBRARIES GROUPED BY SYSTEM: This section describes statistical averages and percentiles for library systems. Selected aspects of operation are listed for individual libraries. Charts that compare the individual systems are found in Section 3.

Three kinds of facts about library operations are presented in this publication: 1) basic statistics, such as the total circulation or the number of books held (Section 1); 2) ratios, such as the number of circulation transactions per capita (Sections 2 and 3); and 3) percentages, such as the percentage of its total operating budget that a library spends on books (Sections 2 and 3).

DEFINITIONS OF VARIABLES

The following statistics are provided in summary form for each of the eight population groups and each of the eighteen library systems. Unless otherwise noted, the source for these statistics is the 1987-88 Illinois Public Library Annual Report form (IPLAR).

POPULATION SERVED: The population according to the 1980 (or later special) Census for all but district libraries. The latter provided population figures for their service areas.

NONRESIDENT FEE: The nonresident fee shown is the fee charged per family per year for use of the library. Exceptions are indicated by a footnote.

TOTAL TRANSACTIONS: The total direct circulation of all materials to library users. This figure includes both interlibrary loans received from other libraries and reciprocal borrowing.

TOTAL STAFF IN FTE: Full-Time Equivalence is figured on the basis of a 40-hour week. Included in this figure are professional staff, technical and clerical employees, and pages. Excluded from this figure are maintenance staff, persons not paid by the library, and vacant positions.

FILMS: Included in this figure are 8mm and 16mm motion picture films, videotapes, videocassettes, and videodiscs.

EQUALIZED ACCESSED VALUATION: Equalized assessed valuation is the figure of real property reported in thousands of dollars. Information is taken from the abstracts on file with the Illinois Department of Revenue for the 1986 assessment year. For public libraries whose service area is in more than one county, a separate assessment and tax rate is shown for each county.

TAX RATE: Tax rates should be interpreted as follows: a tax rate of 0.12 is equal to 12 cents per $100 of assessed valuation. Information is taken from the abstracts on file with the Illinois Department of Revenue for the 1986 assessment year. The tax rate reported for all types of libraries is for general library use only and may not include rates levied by libraries for a variety of special purposes (e.g., social security or workers' compensation).

LOCAL GOVERNMENT RECEIPTS: The amount of revenue received by the library from local government sources during the fiscal year. This amount does not include a working balance from the previous year, income from tax anticipation warrants, revenue sharing, proceeds of a bond issue, or the monetary value of services provided free by the local government (e.g., audit tax, social security tax, and working cash fund tax). This figure includes income for the year in which the money is received.

TOTAL RECEIPTS: The total amount of money received by the library from all sources during the fiscal year, including state aid, revenue sharing, receipts for capital expenditures, gifts, etc. This does not include the working balance from the previous year, income from tax anticipation warrants, or the monetary value of services provided by the local government. Excluded from this figure is income (e.g., endowment monies) given directly to the Friends of the Library group instead of the library.

EXPENDITURES FOR WAGES AND SALARIES: Included in this figure are wages and salaries paid to all staff except maintenance personnel and fringe benefits such as the library's contribution for insurance, social security, and the Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund.

PRINT EXPENDITURES: Expenditures for books, periodicals, microforms, and other printed materials.

AUDIOVISUAL EXPENDITURES: Expenditures for audiovisual and all other non-print materials.

TOTAL OPERATING EXPENDITURES: Expenditures for wages, salaries, and fringe benefits for all employees, for library materials, for supplies, for binding and rebinding, for plant operation and maintenance, and for all other current operating costs.

TOTAL EXPENDITURES: Total operating expenditures plus capital outlay (for sites, buildings, construction or remodeling, and purchase of vehicles and other major fixed assets) and debt retirement.

The following data are provided for each library and, in summary form, for each of the population groups and each of the eighteen library systems. The source of the data, unless otherwise indicated, is the 1987-88 Illinois Public Library Annual Report form (IPLAR). Other sources of data include the 1980 Census (CENSUS), the 1986 Illinois Department of Revenue Equalized Assessed Valuation tape (TAPE), and the Illinois State Library (ISL).

TRAN PER FTE: Transactions per paid full-time equivalent staff. The number of circulation transactions per paid, full-time equivalent staff, excluding building maintenance staff, based on a 40-hour work week.

TRAN PER CAP: Transactions per capita. The number of circulation transactions per capita for the population served. (CENSUS, ISL)

TRAN PER ITEM HELD: Transactions per item held. The number of circulation transactions per item in the collection, including books, films, video materials and audio recordings.

TRAN PER HOUR OPEN: Transactions per hour open. The number of circulation transactions per hour the central library was open. This is found by dividing the total number of circulation transactions for the year by 52 times the number of hours open during a typical week in October 1987.

% ADULT TRAN: Percentage of adult transactions. This is the circulation of adult materials as a percentage of the total circulation.

FTE PER 1000 POP: Full-time equivalent per 1,000 population. The number of full-time equivalent staff, excluding building maintenance staff, per 1,000 population. Libraries with all-volunteer staffs are included in figuring system and population group averages. (CENSUS, ISL)

MLS % OF TOTAL STAFF: Master's in library science percentage of total staff. Hours per week worked by staff holding a library degree at the master's level as a percentage of total FTE hours per week, not including building maintenance staff.

VOLS ADDED PER CAP: Volumes added per capita. The number of book volumes added per capita. (CENSUS, ISL)

VOLS HELD PER CAP: Volumes held per capita. The number of book volumes held per capita. (CENSUS, ISL)

% VOLS ADDED: Percentage of volumes added. The number of book volumes added as a percentage of the number of book volumes held at the end of the year.

ASSD VAL PER CAP: Assessed valuation per capita. The assessed valuation of the area served per capita, in dollars. (TAPE, CENSUS, ISL)

OPER EXP PER CAP: Operating expenditures per capita. Total operating expenditures per capita, in dollars. (CENSUS, ISL)

% WAGES: Percentage of wages. Operating expenditures for wages, salaries and fringe benefits for paid staff, not including building maintenance staff, as a percentage of total operating expenditures. Libraries with all-volunteer staffs are included in figuring system and population group averages.

% LIB MAT: Percentage of library materials. Expenditures for library materials as a percentage of total operating expenditures.

MAT EXP PER CAP: Materials expenditure per capita. Expenditures per capita for library materials, in dollars. (CENSUS, ISL)

% OTHER: Percentage of other. Operating expenditures, other than expenditures for wages and library materials, as a percentage of total operating expenditures. This includes wages and fringe benefits for building maintenance staff, capital outlay, and other miscellaneous expenses.

SAL HEAD LIBR: Salary of head librarian. Annual salary of the head librarian, as of the last day of the FY 1987/88. When an hourly wage was reported rather than an annual salary, the annual salary was calculated by multiplying the hourly wage times the number of hours worked per week times 52.

In addition to the definitions on pages 3 and 4, the following variables are also included in Table A for each population group and system.

HRS PER WK: Number of hours the central library was open during a typical week in October 1987.

VOLS ADDED: Total number of book volumes added.

VOLS HELD: Total number of book volumes held at the end of the year.

PERS REC: Number of periodical titles currently received.

LIB MAT EXP: Expenditures for all library materials.

MAKING SENSE OF THE STATISTICS

Numerical facts about libraries can represent values for individual libraries, or they can describe in summary form the values for a group of libraries. In this example, the groups are based on the size of population served. The table below, used as an example here and also reproduced in the corresponding section of this issue, provides summaries--averages, percentiles and ranges--of basic statistics for the group of libraries serving populations of from 5,000 to 9,999.

Each type of summary--averages, percentiles, and ranges--provides a slightly different descriptive picture of a group of libraries. By becoming comfortable with the nuances of each summary measure, you will be able to get the most out of these numerical descriptions.

In examining this sample chart, notice that N = the number of cases (libraries) that are included in this analyses. The number of cases may be less than the total of all in a particular group (total libraries in a system or total libraries in a population group). Libraries that do not report statistics or that contract for services will not be included in these analyses.

AVERAGES. The average (also called the mean) of any group of items is the sum of all the items in that group divided by their number. An average provides a good, general description of an item for a particular group of libraries. For example, looking at volumes held (VOL HELD) in the chart above tells us that, for libraries serving populations of 5,000 to 9,999, the average number of volumes held is 26,649. The "average" will likely not represent any real library, just as no American family has 2.3 children; it is one statistical way of describing the group of libraries.

Reading the averages for the other statistics across the chart gives us a good picture of the "average" library serving a population this size.

RANGE: HIGH and LOW. The high score identifies the highest value for that item, and the low score identifies the lowest value. Looking again at volumes held in the chart above, we see that the library holding the most volumes had 98,210 volumes, and the library with the fewest volumes had 4,995. In this case, the range tells us that there is a great deal of difference between the book collection sizes of libraries in this group. Using the high and low values, you can also get a sense of where your library fits in relation to the top and the bottom of the range.

Range can also give you another descriptive clue about this group of libraries. If either the top or the bottom values is quite a bit larger or smaller than the average, you can see that these extreme values will influence the average. When this happens, although the average is technically accurate, it may not, in fact, provide a representative description of these libraries. So, again considering the volumes held by libraries serving 5,000 to 9,999, even though 26,649 volumes is the average, the presence of a very high value (or a low value) could affect the average so that we really do not know much about how many libraries have collections around the average figure. In order to know more about how many libraries have collections of various sizes, we need to look at the percentiles.

PERCENTILES: 50TH (MEDIAN), 75TH, 25TH. The 50th percentile, or the median, is the value below which 50% of the libraries fall. Looking at the chart above, we see that 50% of the libraries have collections smaller than 24,035 volumes. That number is almost 2,614 volumes smaller than the average, so, indeed, the collections of the larger libraries did push up the average. The median, as the midpoint of values, is frequently as interesting, or more so, than the average since it helps to place your library's figure in relation to the total number of libraries that have a larger or smaller collection.

The 75th and the 25th percentiles tell you more about how the values are actually distributed through the range. The 75th percentile is the value below which 75% of the libraries have collections smaller than 33,194 volumes, confirming our suspicion that a few larger libraries had skewed the average. We know that most of the library collections (75%) are smaller than 33,194, and we can tell from the 25th percentile that most are larger than 19,457.

So, putting all these summary estimates together, what can we say about library collections in this group of libraries?

> Out of the 95 libraries in this group, we know that half have collections smaller than 24,035 volumes. The largest collection is 98,210 volumes, and the smallest is 4,495 volumes. Fifty percent of the libraries have between 19,457 and 33,194 volumes. And, finally, the average number of volumes held is 26,649.

As you can see, the richness of this description above can be very useful to you in assessing how your library compares with other libraries. Suppose, for example, that your library holds 25,000 volumes. Looking at the average alone, it seems that you are below average. However, you hold more volumes than fifty percent of the libraries in the group, and you are roughly within 9,000 volumes of the number held by 75% of the group, so your position, while below average, is actually better than that of half the libraries.

To make sense of the summary (descriptive) statistics in any table, look at each one--average, high, low, 50th percentile, 75th percentile, 25th percentile--in order to fill in a different piece of the total picture. You may find it helpful, then, to describe the total situation to yourself, much as we did in the example above. Then ask yourself, "based on this total picture, how is MY library doing?" Once you have established this, you may use the result to set measurable objectives for the library based on these statistics.

The comparison groups here are one source of information about your library. You may also want to look at comparisons within your system (Section 3). In addition, the Management Profile that each public library receives from the Library Research Center provides comparisons with other groups such as those Illinois libraries with similar operating expenditures and those with similar equalized assessed valuation per capita.

SECTION 1: STATISTICS ABOUT LIBRARY OPERATION

Basic statistics for each library are listed in this section, offering the individual view of libraries. The figures in this section are total figures for 1987-88 for each library. The statistics included in this section are described in the DEFINITIONS OF VARIABLES section which is found at the beginning of this issue.

This section provides the library with basic information on the question "where are we?" This is the baseline information needed by librarians and trustees in planning and managing library services. A library often uses other libraries for comparison. This statistics listing will allow an individual library to review the statistics of libraries of interest. These comparison libraries may be those serving similarly-sized communities or neighboring libraries.

SECTION 2: PUBLIC LIBRARIES GROUPED BY SIZE OF POPULATION SERVED

This section examines groups of public libraries by the size of population served, a common way to compare individual libraries. In the tables that follow, the eight population groups are:

Under 1,500
1,500 to 2,999
3,000 to 4,999
5,000 to 9,999
10,000 to 24,999
25,000 to 49,999
50,000 to 74,999
75,000 to 249,999

Within each population group, there are three types of information:

A. Averages and percentiles of statistics of public libraries serving a selected population group
B. Ratios and percentages derived from statistics of public libraries serving a selected population group
C. Ratios and percentages derived from statistics of public libraries serving a selected population group

The statistics used in the first summary table for each population group are derived from the data in Section 1. The DEFINITIONS OF VARIABLES section at the beginning of this issue includes the definition of each item in these tables.

The tables in this section make extensive use of ratios and percentages. A ratio is derived by combining basic statistics. For example, we divide annual circulation by population to determine the number of circulation transactions per capita. A library might have 10.4 circulation transactions per person, based on population served. Percentages look at one statistic as a fraction of another, such as adult circulation as a fraction of total circulation. A library may have an adult circulation that accounts for 62% of total circulation.

The charts provide a visual comparison of selected items across the different population groupings. Comparisons among different population groups can suggest general trends as well as differences among the various population groupings. In addition to the charts given here, both Table A and Table C provide additional figures which can be used for comparison among the population groupings.

SECTION 3. PUBLIC LIBRARIES GROUPED BY SYSTEM

This section of ILLINOIS PUBLIC LIBRARY STATISTICS parallels Section 2, but groups libraries by system rather than by size of population served. The introduction to Section 2 provides information which can also be used to interpret data in this section.

As in Section 2, there are three types of information:

A. Averages and percentiles of statistics of public libraries in a selected system
B. Ratios and percentages from statistics of public libraries in a selected system
C. Ratios and percentages derived from statistics of public libraries in a selected system

The definitions for all of the column headings are the same as those listed in the DEFINITIONS OF VARIABLES of this issue. The use of these tables also parallels the description given in Section 2 which provides a brief introduction on the use of statistics in a comparison group.

Library systems will find this section useful in obtaining an overall picture of public library services within their system. This can aid in coordinating public library service in the system. Also, by understanding the status of all public libraries in the system, system staff are better able to assist each one in planning and evaluating local library service.

The charts also make it possible to compare selected items across the 18 systems. Comparisons among different systems can suggest general trends as well as differences among the systems. In addition to the charts given here, figures from Tables A and Table C can be used for comparison among the 18 systems. Data for Chicago Library System is included in the comparison charts when reported figures fall within the confines of the charts.

ILLINOIS STATE LIBRARY, SPRINGFIELD, IL 62756
PUBLIC LIBRARY ANNUAL REPORT
1987-1988

Every public library in Illinois is required by law (Chapter 81, Sec. 4-10, and elsewhere in the Illinois Revised Statutes) to file this annual report with the State Library. The purpose of this report is to obtain and publish data on the resources and services of all Illinois public libraries for use by all concerned. Each library is asked to file this report with its system headquarters AS SOON AS POSSIBLE UPON (AND BY NO LATER THAN 30 DAYS AFTER) completion of its fiscal year ending between July 1, 1987, and June 30, 1988. Please complete and return this form promptly. (By law, public library districts have until Oct. 1 to file this report, however it would be appreciated if the form is filed by Aug. 1.) Every public library district should send the State Library a copy of the certified audit of its accounts within 6 months of the close of the fiscal year. That document can be sent to the State Library later.

Please do not leave any item blank. Enter "0" if the appropriate entry for an item is zero or "none." Enter "N.A." if an item does not apply to your library. If an exact figure is not available for a particular item, but it is known that the amount is greater than zero, enter an estimate of the amount. Type your responses or print in black ink. To help prevent mistakes in assembling photocopies of several different libraries' reports, please write the name of your library in the line provided in the right hand margin of pages 2-6.
